1. Claims 3-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, "the tubular cap engaging member" lacks antecedent basis.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Ash or Forsell et al.

It is noted that a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. See In re Casey, 370 F.2d 576, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 312 F.2d 937, 939, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963).

4. Claims 1, 3-4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Cunningham.

As stated above, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 2, 5-6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cunningham in view of Berneiser, Warwzyniak or Nasiell.

Cunningham discloses all of the claimed subject matter except for having a tensioning band. Berneiser (element "20"), Warwzyniak (element "50") or Nasiell (element "8") disclose a tensioning band. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the device of Cunningham with a tensioning band to protect to tool or to maintain pressure on the workpiece as taught by Berneiser, Warwzyniak or Nasiell.

7. Claim 8 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form.

Claim 8 is redundant in view of claim 6. More than one claim may be presented provided they differ substantially from each other and are not unduly multiplied.

8. Applicant's letter, dated 5/13/04, indicates a submission of supplemental prior art. A PTO-1449 and a copy of the printed publication is not of record.
